Dedication

Once, ambitious men dreamed a dust-bedeviled cactus patch of sand and sage might yield elbow room and hidden treasure if the desert valley could be made to support enough human life. Borrowing irrigation methods from various Indian civilizations already existing there, these pioneers sweated in the dry heat to channel the vital water.

It was four decades of adaptation and building later, when the valley's inhabitants harnessed water for its natural force, as well, with the completion of Roosevelt Dam in 1911. Nearing the turn of the century in the meantime, cities crystalized at the busiest crossroads for the convenience of the growing population. The desire to impose order on these concentrations of activity led to a constitutional convention in Phoenix. Statehood was granted Arizona two years later in 1912 . . .

The preceding pages illustrate the direction of Valley growth since then. With these pages, the annual staff has suggested, in addition, the determining factors of the Valley of the Sun's future, to which we dedicate the 1964-65 Cardinal.

The graduates of 1965 were the last of the many GHS alumni to use this imposing campus landmark, dedicated February 12, 1913. Its neatly trimmed bushes, stucco walls, concrete steps leading to shaded front and inner porches, and creaky wood floors all enhanced what is known as "tradition". Even after a building such as Old Main has completed useful service, tradition remains.

Administration and Faculty

Mr. Howard T. Roberts succeeds Mr. Melvin Zinser as District Superintendent this year. A native of Ohio, Mr. Roberts came to GHS from his post as assistant superintendent of South Euclid-Lyndhurst City Schools at Lyndhurst, Ohio. He received his previous college education at Ohio universities and most recently has worked to complete his dissertation for the doctorate degree at Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

Board and Superintendent Head Administrators

Board of Education—Mr. Arthur F. Sine, Mr. Don Sanderson, Mrs. Graydon B. Hall—President, Mr. John F. Long—Clerk, Dr. Joseph P. Voorhees.

MR. VICTOR E. LOWMAN
Principal

"There has been talk about tradition within a school during this past year. If a nation or school is to grow and prosper, it must be ready to meet the competition it must overcome to be successful. Competition for places of employment, or for admissions to colleges is becoming greater for students with each succeeding year. If this school or any school is to prepare their students to meet this competition, more efficient use of the time in school must be accomplished. The activities which have no real connection with the educational program but have crept into the school for "tradition" or "esprit de corps" reasons, must give way to better provide this time for greater growth in the educational program. The best traditions a school can develop is a reputation—by action of its students—of the willingness to sacrifice to attain the best possible performance in all phases of the school life, in the classrooms as well as in the activity program. This school has and is building this reputation, and I sincerely hope that the desire to excel will continue to dominate at Glendale High School."

Principals Oversee Campus Affairs

"Modern schools offer the opportunity for students to participate in many beneficial activities in addition to the regular academic classes. Among these are the musical, dramatic, athletic and club activities. These activities offer students wonderful opportunities for developing many traits and values not always attainable in the classroom situation.

A high percentage of Glendale High School students have availed themselves of these opportunities and are to be congratulated for their many fine contributions to our school."

MR. ROBERT P. CHRISTENSEN
Vice Principal

MRS. VIVIAN AMSPOKER
Head Counselor

Assistant Principal of Student Services is Mrs. Vivian Ampoker, who this year completed ten years at Glendale High, which she joined as a home economics teacher and counselor. Mrs. Ampoker supervises the work of the counselling staff, and such services as registration, testing, class distribution and scheduling.

Mr. Owen W. Allen

This year Glendale High School sees the leaving of Mr. Owen W. Allen. Mr. Allen has taught at GHS since 1935. In his 30 years of teaching here, he has gained respect from students for his patience and understanding.

The FFA advisor was born in Taylor, Ariz., Aug. 23, 1899. He attended U of A and Colorado A&M. Mr. Allen spent nine years teaching at Gilbert High where he started the Gilbert FFA Chapter, and three more at Mesa before coming to Glendale.

A sports fan, Mr. Allen has coached the golf squad and also served as Jayvee basketball coach.

Our thanks and best wishes go to Mr. Owen W. Allen.

Two Say Farewell to GHS

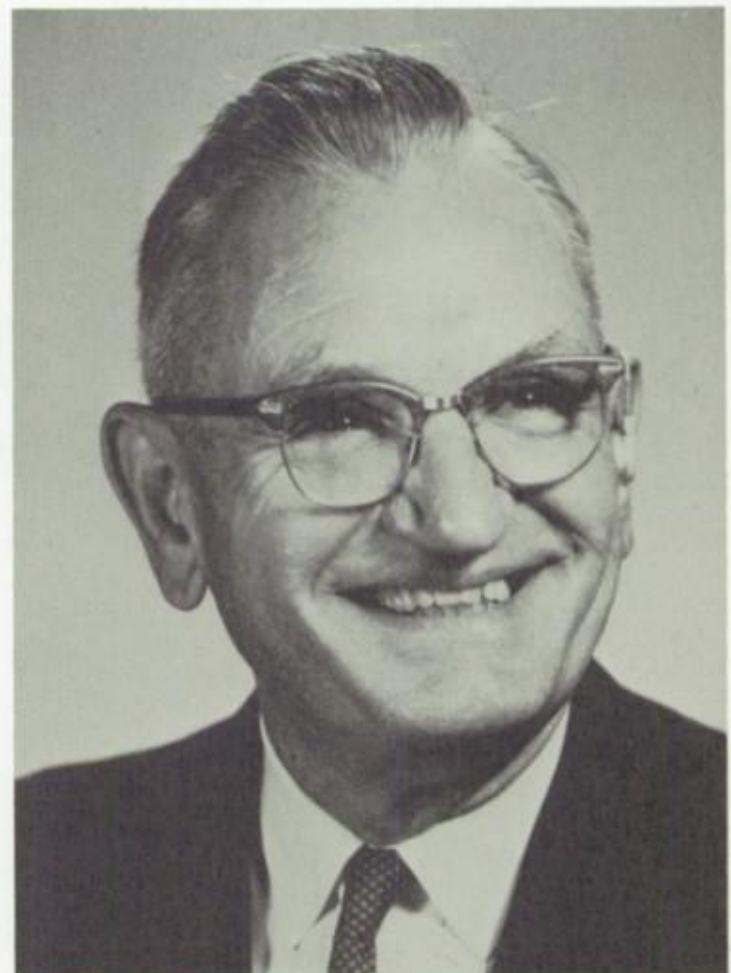

Mr. Ainslie C. Potter

Leaving Glendale High this year is Mr. Ainslie C. Potter. Mr. Potter has taught at Glendale since 1941. During his years at GHS Mr. Potter has served as band director, chorus director, drama instructor, study hall supervisor, and is now in charge of audio-visual aids.

This man of many talents was born on October 2, 1899. He attended Intermountain Union where he got his B.A., and Arizona State University where he obtained his Masters Degree.

One of the things for which Mr. Potter will be long remembered is his writing of the Alma Mater.

All praise to thee, Mr. Potter
To you our voices raise.
Your high ideals make strong your name
Throughout the world no school can claim
More right to honor, glory, fame
Than you, Mr. Potter.

The Classes Section Suggests the Four Periods of Time in the Valley of the Sun Story

Causing reflection on the firmly established Past, the remodeled and still useful 1st National Bank, pictured opposite, seems especially suited to introduce the senior gallery. Perhaps the knowing looks of these '65 veterans hint at the tales each could tell about his four years. Each one's story is important. More than any other year, the senior year of applications, tests, and self-evaluation focuses attention on futures in light of the past.

Handling both new and routine responsibilities of the Present is suggested by the modernistic Maricopa county complex, pictured at the beginning of the junior section. In the junior year budding athletic, scholastic and fine arts talents begin to flower in the sunshine of recognition. And from the class which knows the ropes well enough to sponsor Operation Prom and the concession stand, leaders are chosen to represent their class the following summer at Boys State, Girls State, Anytown, and as an American Field Service summer exchange student.

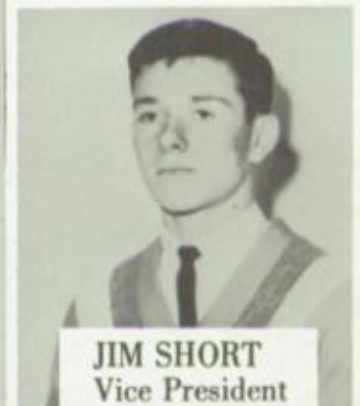

If the sophomore year seems a quiet one, it's just that the newness of high school has worn off and sophomores are calmly getting the lay of the land with the help of geography class. These advanced underclassmen, establishing a firm framework, are suggested with the construction scene of a local Church of the Beatitudes extension, opening the sophomore section. And unique with GHS sophomores is their ability to range from poetry to pockets in year-long contributing to the Valley of the Sun for retarded children.

The freshman section is introduced with ASU's Grady Gammage Auditorium. It is the excitement in anticipation of this valley monument to futuristic design, which aptly prefaces GHS's future, the freshmen.

Activities

The Face of GHS . . .

Viewed here from the east, the late Old Main testified to the local influence of Spanish architecture, both night (right) and day (below). The modern decor of the new administration building, pictured lower right, clearly reflects the changing campus style. This building houses the reception lobby and book store as well as attendance, nurse's and counseling offices.

One of the busiest GHS walks (left), running north to the cafeteria, supports at least 4,000 soles each school day. The new rooms to the right replaced Old Main and "the pit" (below) and walk bordering the inner lawn.

Is Ever Changing

Early in 1965, students kept a tearful eye on construction of one of the newest buildings, removing the last trace of the old stomping grounds along with delapidated rooms in the center of the campus.

Early Bird—"And now, my dear, we come to another of the many facets of driver education."

Intermission—Students making their appointed rounds have five minutes to cover the necessary ground between classes.

Full-Time Desk Jobs Fill the Days . . .

Daily Bulletin—"Time now is 9:30 a.m. and this is your ole buddy Diamond Kim bringing you up-to-the-minute news and pep talks immediately after my next song."

Change of Pace—"Let's move over to the side, girls. My associate will be all right in a moment; he just ate one of his tacos."

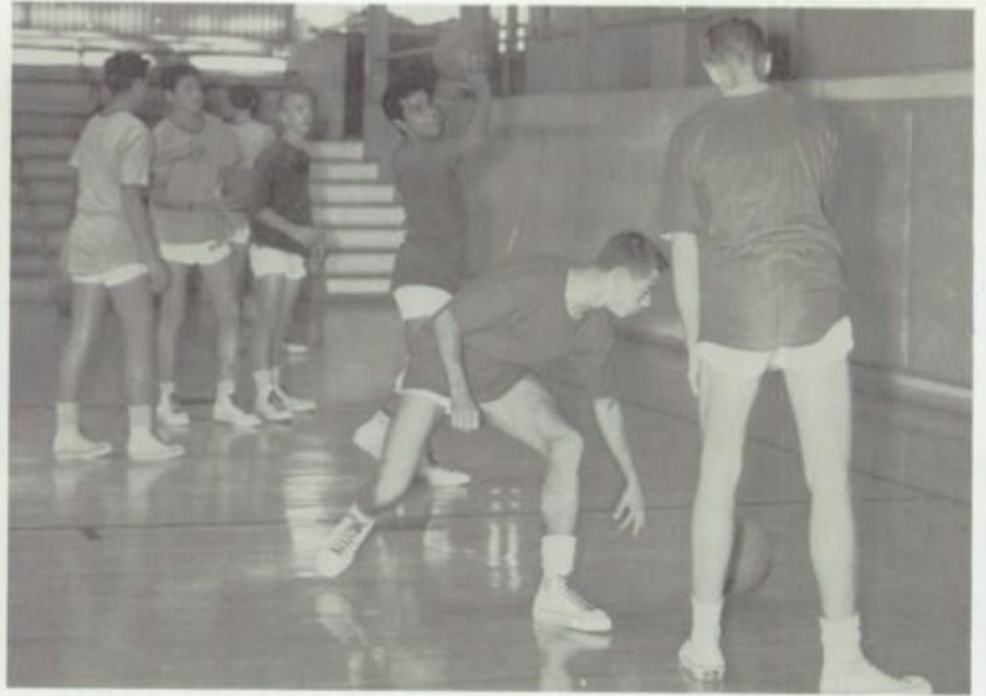

Daily Routine—Students in one of the newer wings become absorbed in the search for knowledge.

Lunch Hour—Munching to the tune of recorded music, many GHS'ers spend the 35-minute lunch break here.

Classroom Capers—Practicing Mexican customs, this lady of justice trades her scales for a poke at the piñata.

Then the Fun Begins

Fun had no trouble finding a way, especially this past year of the dry surfer, the discotheque, the NT, and the TP. Even more after-hours energy was spent toward exciting sports seasons with all the trimmings, religious youth groups, and service club participation.

In the above picture, Susie Christiansen, GHS's foreign exchange student from Denmark, has just arrived at the Robert Olson family home. The family shares a private joke as Susie unpacks.

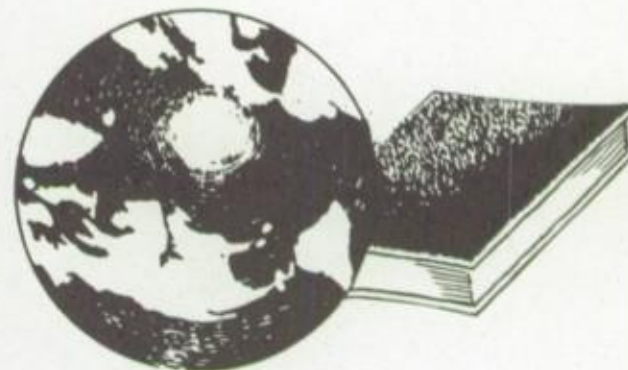

At the right, Susie converses with Suzie Fitzgerald, our foreign exchange student to Germany, about their adventures in foreign lands.

Lower right, Frank Chambers awards Susie with an Indian outfit and names her Letterman Sweetheart.

Variety Show Is Big Success . . .

The Thespian Club sponsored two variety shows to raise money for their drama productions.

Vocal Music Club and band assisted the Thespians in selling tickets.

The first variety show consisted of several skits, written and performed by the drama students and Thespian members.

On January 14, the second variety show was presented. The symphonic choir sang "More" and "Charade", and the Madrigal group sang "Blue Velvet" and "Clementine." The band played several numbers, among which was: "Ballad for Young Moderns," and skits were given by Thespians. The Negligees, a local band, highlighted the evening.

The Mouse That Roared

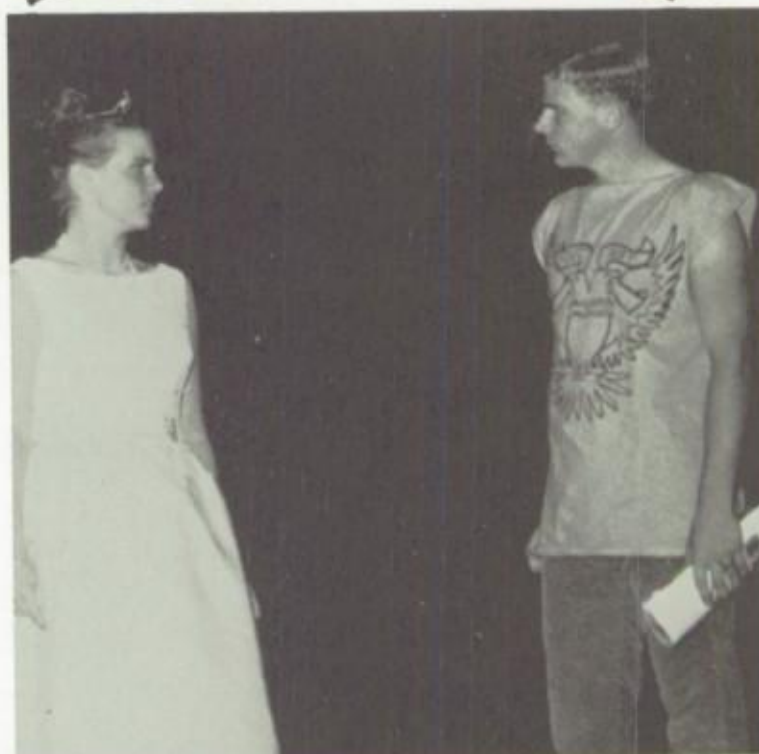

After many weeks of rehearsing, building sets, and making costumes, the Thespian Club presented "The Mouse That Roared" on November 12 and 13.

Mr. Edward Cox directed the play, his first at Glendale.

At the right Gloriana and Tully Bascom, played by Jane Bills and Kim Skidmore, respectively, discuss the economic problems of the Duchy of Grand Fenwick and consider possible solutions.

Carousel Presented

"Yoo-hoo! Nettie Fow-w-w-ler!"

GHS Thespians invested a wealth of talent and man hours in this year's musical production, Carousel. Exceptional scenery, costumes, and choreography backed up stars Julie Jordan and Billy Bigelow in the production, costing over $1500.

Attendance for the three-night stand was boosted through publicity appearances given in advance at local civic meetings. The cast and crew involved over 100 GHS students.

My summer in Germany as an American foreign exchange student was enchanting, as well as informative and educational. The experience of living as a member of a German family has given me a new understanding of my own country, and of my own friends.

My family was marvelous!! There was Fritz, 16, my brother; Michthilde, 18, my sister; Mummy; and Poppy, my 65 year old sports car enthusiast father.

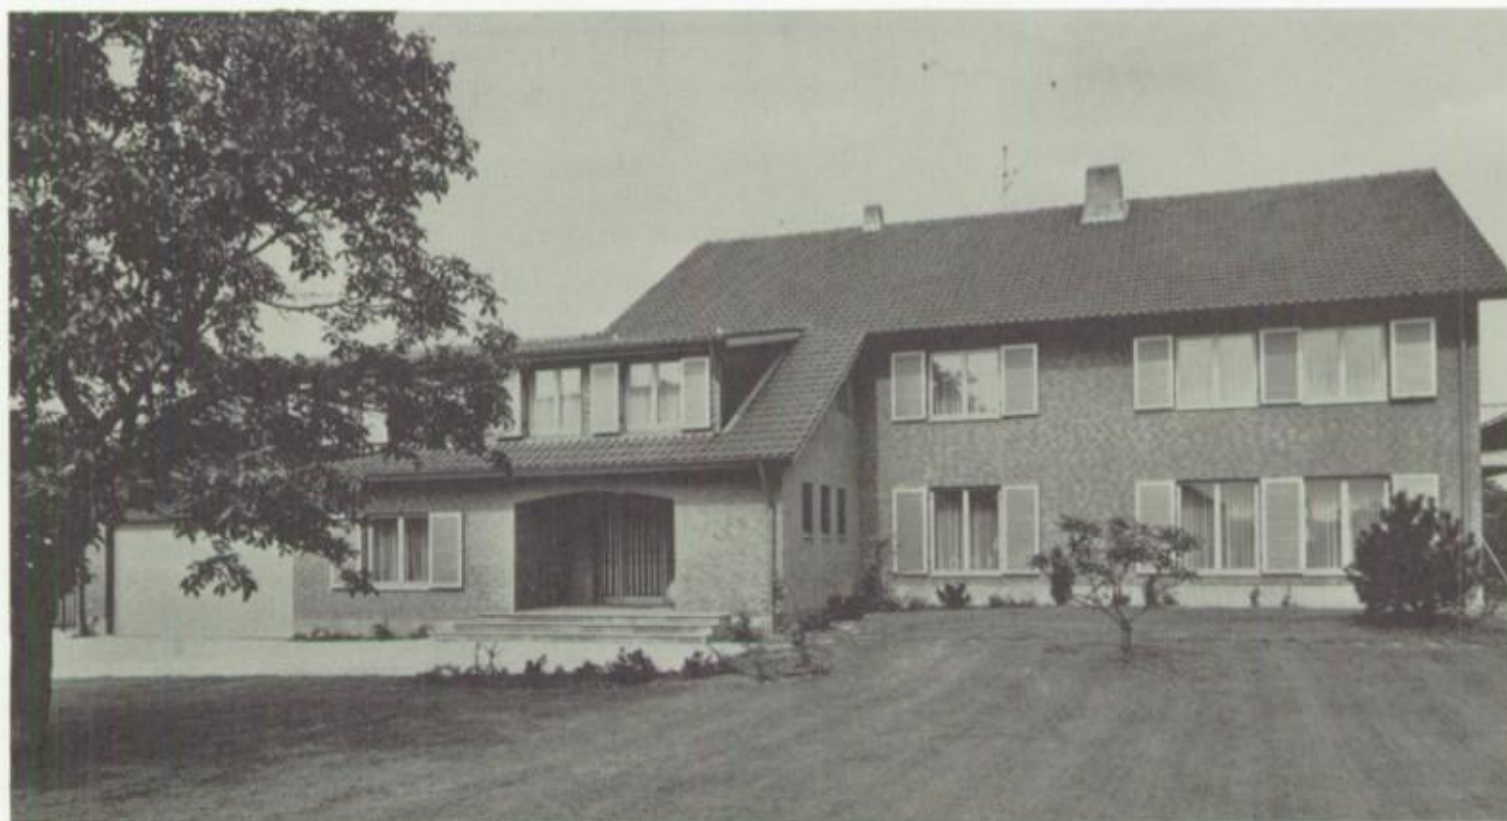

The first two weeks I went to school with my sister. The remainder of the time was spent taking trips to the cities and places of interest, (once we took a four hour trip down the Rhine), horseback riding, swimming in the family pool, or just enjoying each other's company.

It was a chapter in my life I'll never forget, and one I wish everyone could experience.

Grapplers play it rough as a Card picks his opponent up for a possible slam.

The art of wrestling goes back to antiquity, and was glorious in the years of its prime. It was an old sport when the world was almost new; it was an honored sport. Its devotees in ancient times were honored people, respected, admired, and glorified.

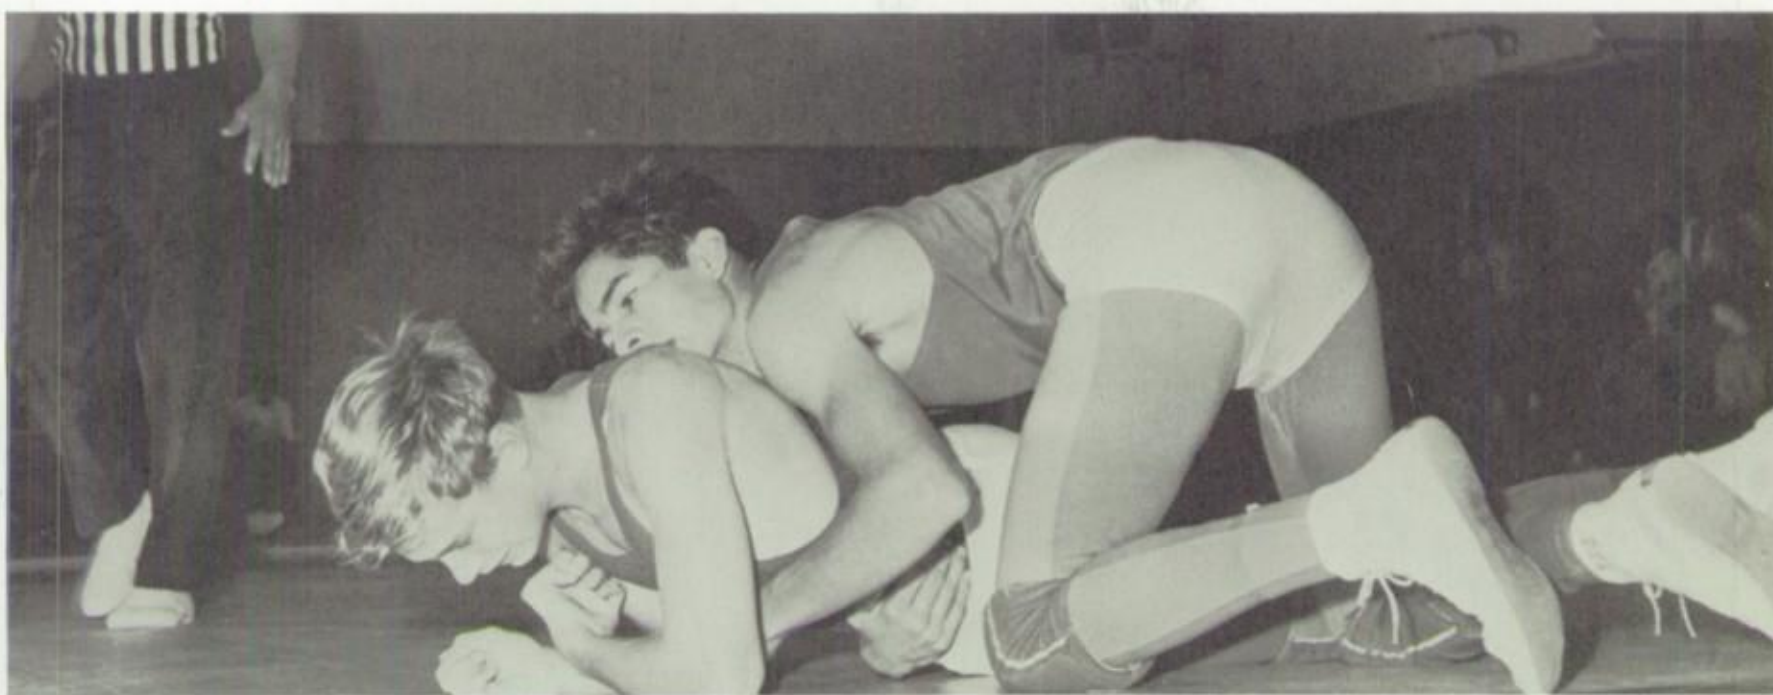

Wrestlers

A pin is almost certain as unknown wrestler up-ends Card near the end of the match.

Fast action may be the key as a Card quickly makes his move to gain the advantage and the score.

A pause, and then more tough action as Card, on top, holds the advantage for a pin.

Card takes down his opponent and readies himself for a possible reversible.

Grapple for Position

A pin looks close as Card applies pressure to keep his opponent down.

COACH FRANCE

Cross-country running is a special type of long-distance running. The course is usually laid out over gentle slopes, over grass, or ordinary dirt roads and paths which are often cut by uneven ruts, strewn with pebbles and rocks.

Cross-country originated as a sport in England during the 19th Century. Cross-Country was on the Olympic Games program from 1912-1924. In the United States it has achieved prominence in recent years, not only as a competitive sport but also as a conditioner for the regular track season.

Co-Captains

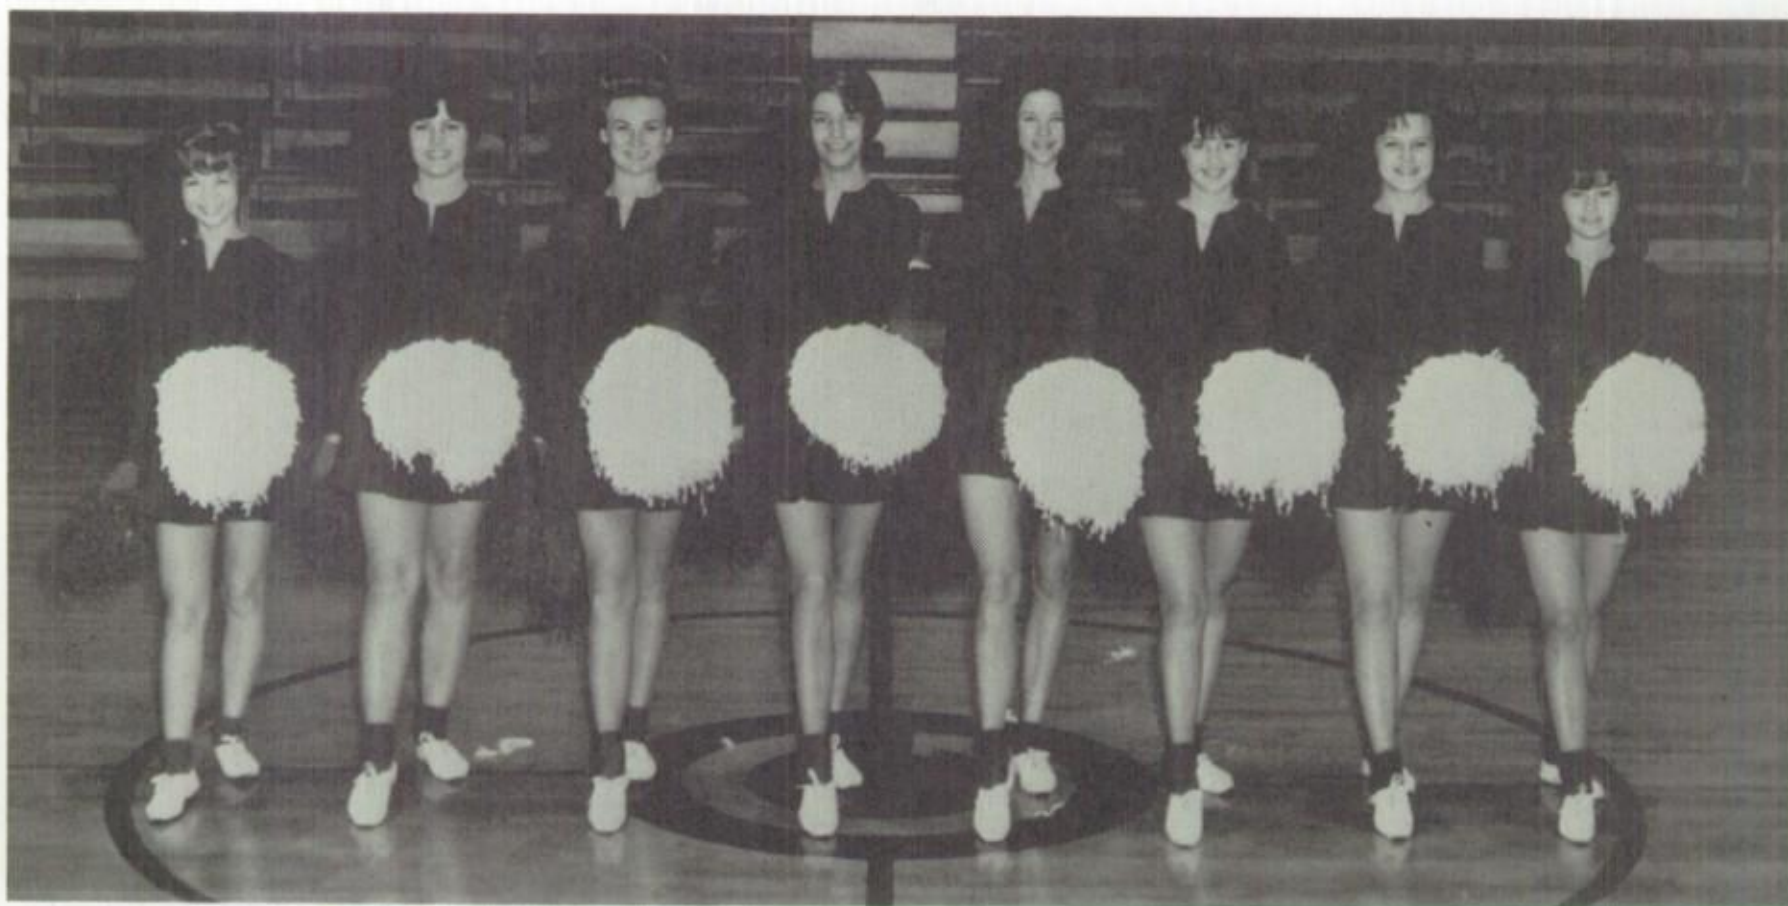

Co-Captains
VICKI SPITLER, SHERRIN GRAHAM

This past year has been an outstanding one with the numerous performances of the Cardettes. They performed with precision and grace at the pep rallies, football games, and the home basketball games.

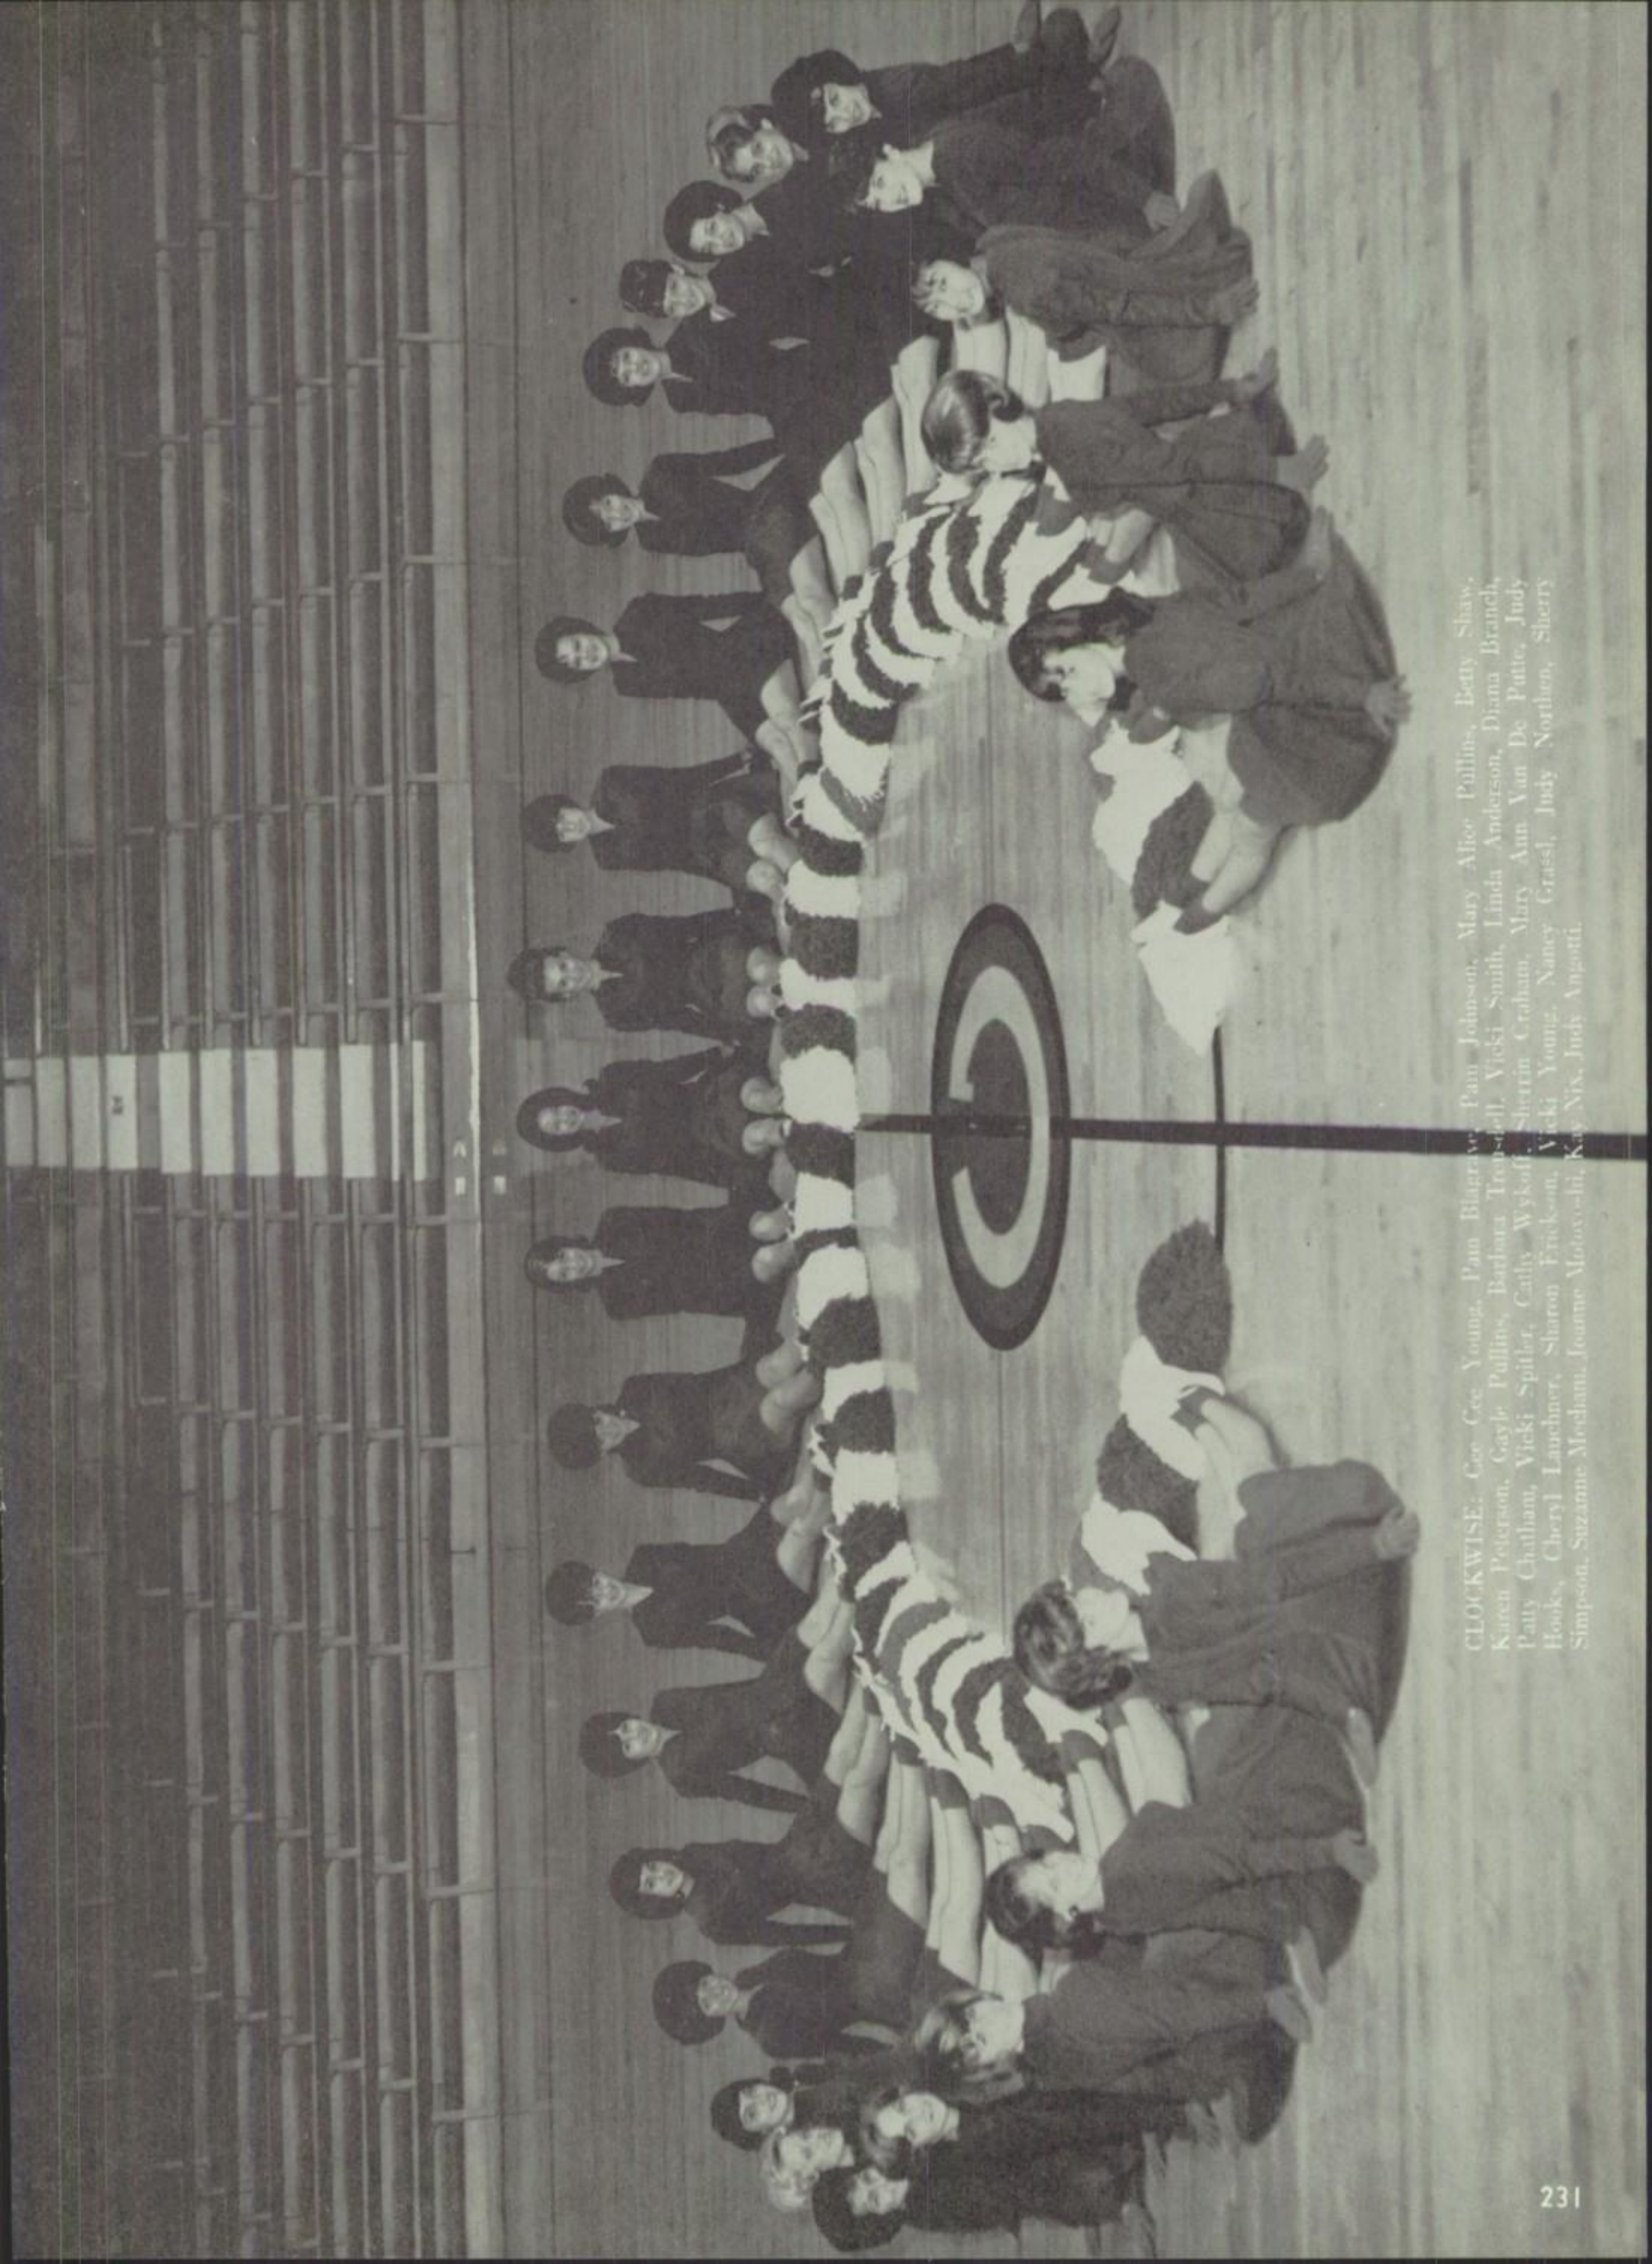

Pom Pon is very challenging to each girl because the quality of the squad is based upon how much each girl contributes. Each girl is kept on her toes by the efficient supervision of the Cardette's sponsor, Mrs. Carolyn Wilson and co-captains Sherrin Graham and Vicki Spitler.

Excellent co-ordination, grace, a good sense of rhythm, a good memory and long hours of practice are essential for a good Cardette and a good squad. The Cardettes can well be proud of their long tradition of excellence.

In Memoriam

MITSY HALL

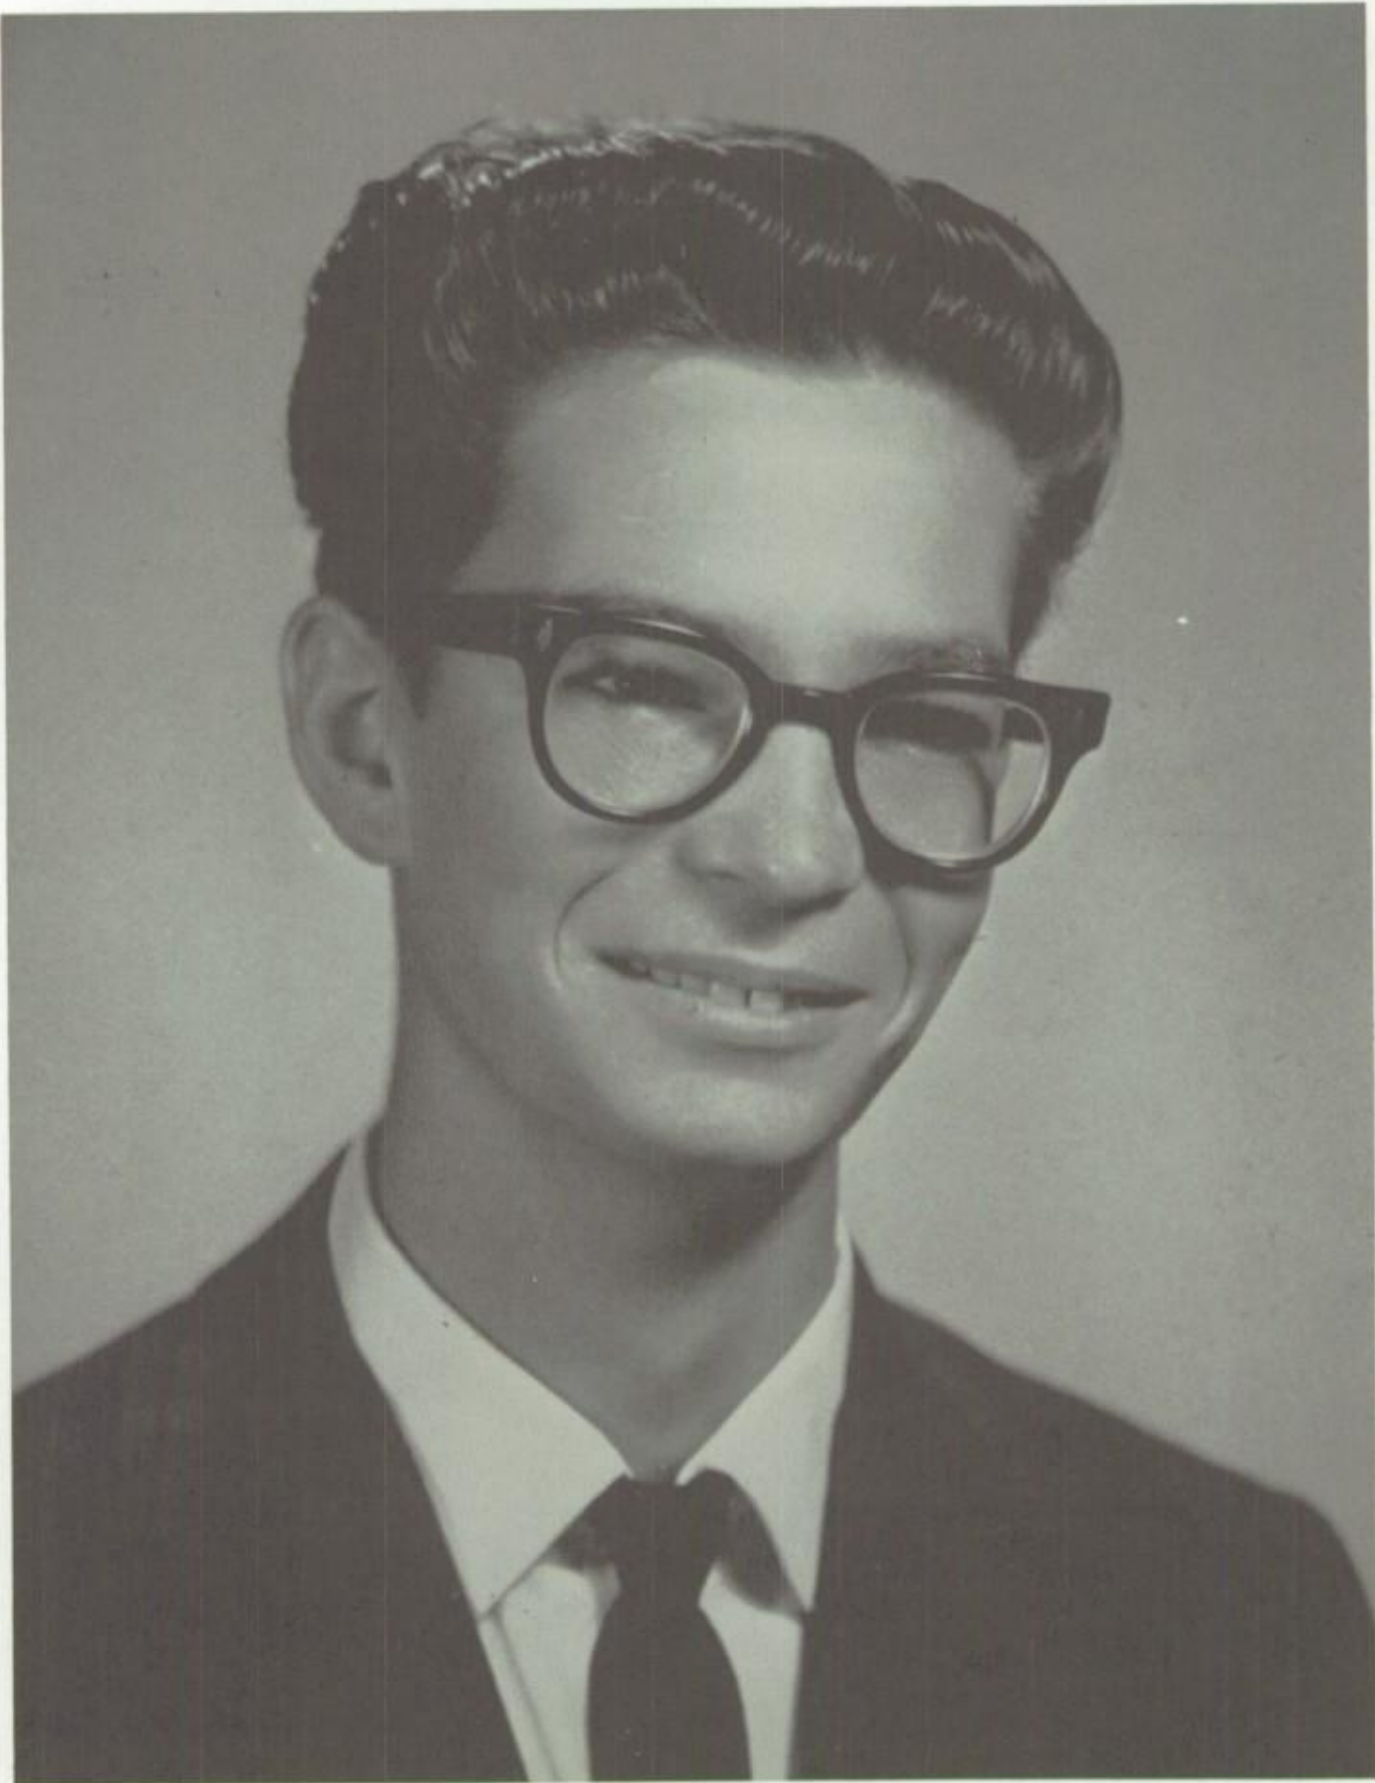

1945-1964

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

Psalms 116:15

The sudden death of young Mitsy Hall earlier this year saddened the lives of many of the faculty members and students at GHS. During her four years at GHS, Mitsy was active in Pom Pon, student government, and many campus clubs. Her memory will remain as beautiful and bright as Mitsy, herself.

In Remembrance

BRENT BENTON

1946-1964

"We understand death for the first time when He puts His hands upon one whom we love."

—Mad. De Stael

Another tragic event of the year was the death of Brent Benton, a victim of leukemia. He was respected by those who knew him, faculty and students alike. His quiet, friendly countenance will be missed by many. We dedicate this page in his memory.
